MEMORANDUM FOR THE FILES:

In saying goodbye to Chris Herter today before his 25X1 departure for the Geneva Conference, I took up one or two matters of business, including our intention to [redacted]

25X1 [redacted]

They all seemed highly satisfied with the proposed assignment.

Mr. Herter raised no objection whatever to proceeding, 25X1 it being understood that the assignment would only be carried through if [redacted] health remained entirely satisfactory.
25X1 I said that he seemed to me to have made a complete recovery, and I felt would be entirely able to carry on his duties [redacted]
I said that we would give him expert deputies to take off some of the burden of the work, which should not be a real strain to him.
